Children of Blood and Bone by Tomi Adeyemi*
Magic has fled the country of Orïsha, but when Zélie has a chance to try and bring it back, she embarks on a dangerous quest. With the help of a runaway princess who she’s not sure she trusts and her brother, Zélie fights the clock to save her world’s magic.

Six of Crows by Leigh Bardugo*
A convict, a sharpshooter, a runaway, a spy, and a magical Heartrender, led by a ruthless thief. Only this hand-picked crew is ready to travel deep into the cold North to complete the ultimate heist. Their lives and even the fate of the world rests on their success — or failure.

The Cruel Prince by Holly Black*
One of only a few mortals in the Court of Faerie, Jude has one mission: to make a place for herself despite the fey prejudice against mortals. She dives into court intrigues, alliances, and betrayals, and finds herself up against the cruel son of the High King.

The Lost Coast by Amy Rose Capetta
Deep among the redwoods of Northern California, there is magic. Magic that brings together a group of girls called The Grays, but also a magic that has taken one of their own. When Danny moves to town, she’s immediately drawn in to the Grays and the mysteries surrounding them.

Girl of Fire and Thorns by Rae Carson*
The only remarkable thing about Elisa compared to her older sister is the Godstone nestled in her naval. But her arranged marriage soon takes her far from home, to a country where forces conspire against her husband, dark magic is wielded against her, and revolutionaries think she is the chosen one.

City of Bones by Cassandra Clare*
Clary Fray never saw magic in New York City until she sees tattoo-covered teenagers kill a man — and then watches the body disappear. Before she knows it, she’s been swept into the world of the mysterious Shadowhunters, including the handsome Jace.

Labyrinth Lost by Zoraida Cordova*
Alex comes from a family of brujas, but doesn’t want her powers. Only when she tries to wish them away, she wishes away her family instead. Now she must embark on a dangerous journey with only a boy she doesn’t trust for guidance.

For a Muse of Fire by Heidi Heilig*
Jetta travels the land with her famous performing family. But the magic that allows her to see and bind the souls of the dead must be kept secret. With the help of a mysterious smuggler, she must brave the dangers of a colonial army, a tyrant, and a feared rebel leader.

The Immortal Rules by Julie Kagawa*
Allison lives in a world ruled by scarcity and fear. She scavenges by day to avoid the danger of being turned by one of the hated vampires at night. But when Allison is turned herself, her only hope is to pass as human and join a group journeying towards a legend.
Ash by Malinda Lo
Cinderella like you've never seen her. Ash dreams of meeting fairies. But when she finally does, he is more dangerous than she knew—and accompanied by a beautiful huntress whom has a strong connection with Ash.

Throne of Glass by Sarah J. Maas*
Caelena is fighting for her freedom by competing against the other thieves, warriors, and killers to determine the best assassin in the country. But when other competitors start turning up dead, Caelena must fight for her life as well as her freedom.

When the Moon Was Ours by Anna-Marie McLemore
Miel and Sam are both a little strange, but their affection has always been strong. But when the feared Bonner sisters begin to covet the roses that grow from Miel’s wrists, the two find themselves in danger and must rely on each other to escape it.

We Set the Dark on Fire by Tehlor Kay Mejia*
Daniela has trained for years to become one of two wives to a rich leader. But when she is recruited to spy for a resistance group and finds out her husband’s second wife will be her beautiful rival Carmen, everything she has worked for is soon in jeopardy.

Girls of Paper and Fire by Natasha Ngan*
Lei is one of nine Paper Girls, beautiful women chosen to serve the king. It’s an honor, but also a curse that Lei doesn’t want. As she trains for her role in the palace, Lei’s danger increases when she does the forbidden by falling in love with another Paper Girl.

Akata Witch by Nnedi Okorafor*
When albino Sunny moves to Nigeria, she’s doesn’t know anyone, and is under threat from the sun. But when new friends introduce her to the world of the Leopard People, she finds belonging—and a quest.

Shadowshaper by Daniel Jose Older*
Sierra is starting her fun, relaxing summer off by painting a mural. But when she notices a nearby mural start to cry, nothing will be the same again. Sierra discovers the Shadowshapers, a magical part of her family legacy, and a plot threatening everything she loves.

Nimona by Noelle Stevenson GN
Villain Lord Ballister Blackheart is in need of a sidekick, but he gets a lot more than he bargained with when the shapeshifting Nimona enters his life. Nimona brings chaos to the duo’s mission to thwart a “hero.”

An Ember in the Ashes by Sabaa Tahir*
Laia is a slave and spy, searching for her brother, in the military academy where Elias is an elite and privileged soldier questioning his path. In the brutal and tyrannical Martial Empire, it seems that their destinies are tied to one another…

*Series
GN=Graphic Novel